We make this statement regardless of who makes the other tires or who sells them; regardless of whether it is made by a company of the size of the B. F. Goodrich Company with sales last year of about a hundred and fifty million dollars or whether it is made by one of the smaller companies with sales of four or five million dollars annually; regardless of whether it is sold by an old established concern like ourselves, who have been in business here in Corsicana for over a quarter of a century, or whether it is sold by one of the new concerns who have just been in business here a short time. This statement is just one of plain, cold facts, but it should be an interesting one to every motorist who will have to buy balloon tires soon—but no more interesting than the special low prices made on these tires.

COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE SAYS MORE COTTON DUE

CORN. OATS AND OTHER A. FEED CROPS OF STATE ARE BETTER

By Associated Press. istin, Texas, July 5.—Texas raise more cotton than last but the crop generally over the cotton raising states will be smaller, George B. Terrell, com-missioner of agriculture, predicted

Cotton acreage in Texas is 99 per cent of last year's planting. corn 100 per cent, oats and wheat and some other food crops have increased acreage, with the condi-tion for all good, the commissioner

"This crop report is based upor he reports of our correspondents representing 210 counties and is supposed to be as accurate a these correspondents can esti-mate conditions in their respec-, tive counties," Commissioner Ter-rell said.

"Corn, wheat, oats and othe food crips are reported in good condition, and the yield of wheat and oats is much above an average. and the grain sorghums are re-ported good. Livestock is re-ported in fine condition. The cotton crop is reported good, but two weeks late. Some insect damages is reported. This damage is caused by the cotton fleas, weevils, vorms and grasshoppers. The cotton flea is doing the most damage. Travis county south, but some damage is reported in North Texas and East Texas. The damage is considerable in some localities.

"The final figures for last year' cotton acreage, as shown by the United States government report for May 1926 are: 19.130,000 acre of cotton planted in Texas, and 1,731,000 arces abandoned becaus otton was gathered.

last year's acreage planted this year. The acreage shown by the government's reports and our re-ports are only approximateions and must be considered as such. We believe the acreage planted this year is about 19,000,000 acres but no difinite figures can be given.

with the exception of some insec lamage and the lateness of the Texas bids fair to make tore cotton and a much larger feed crop than was made last year She should be able to feed herself

We will make no estimate of cotton production at this time, but will make a preliminary estimate August/1, which is really too early for a fair estimate. The condition of cotton in other states is not as promising as it was at this time last year, and we do not believe the total crop of the South can be as large as last year's crop, though the Texas crop may be larger." Commissioner Terrell's tabulated report based on per contage fol-

and nymphs, feed principally in the buds: and grawing tips of the branches of cotton. The injury is done to the squares when they are very small. The hopper is a very small insect, usually greenish in color, but easily seen with the numbers in a cotton field, the adults will readily appear like small white gnats darting among the plants when they are disturbed. Before developing wings the hoppers are small green bugs, remind-ing one somewhat of plant lice. They remain on the plant and may often be discovered with their beaks inserted in small squares from which they extract sap.

Entomology, U. S. D. A., began extensive and thorough experiments with this pest in the Delta Laboratory located at Tallulah, Louis-ing it. These experiments are incomplete as yet, therefore, the rec-ommendations here given for the control of the hopper are provisional only. They are the best that can be given in the light of presnt knowledge and are subject to future revision.

MOODY RALLY WAS ENTHUSIASTIC; ALL SPEECHES PEPPY

PLANS WERE MADE FOR RE-CEPTION FOR MOODY NEXT SATURDAY

No more Ma—too much Pa, and Lynch is far from being a cinch while Dan is the Man.

Such was the keynote sounder by the speakers at the Dan Moody rally held in the district courtroom of the county court house Saturday night.

Speakers were J. L. Halbert, Ru tus Hardy, F. N. Drane, H. E. Traylor, Fred Upchurch, Ballard George, H. B. Daviss and C. L.

Beauford Jester, chairman the local Moody forces, presider and conducted the meeting. The courtroom was well filled, with enthusiastic Moody supporters.

Plans were made for the reception to be given Mr. Moody when comes to Corsicana next Sat urday evening to speak in the in terest of his candidacy for gov ernor. Everyone was of the same opinion.

He referred also to the Ferguson promise nev er to run again, but that promise was like all others, he declared put out to deceive.

Mention was made of Ferguson's statements regarding tax reduc-tions and the decreasing of appropriations of the various State departments, and Mr. Halbert read the record that showed each and every department had used much larger sums of money than had been the case in all former administrations.

"But now he is going about over he State claiming that the expen-ditures had been reduced and the people had been saved millions of ollars in taxes, and that in face of the facts as disclosed by the records," the speaker said. There was cheering and plause following each speaker. Rufus Hardy reviewed the reconof the American Road Company the highway scandal, the court rial prosecuted by Dan Moody while Ferguson opposed him and sought to protect the commission and the road company, and declared that two courts had passed on the question of the reasonableness of the contracts and that Moods had been sustained all the way through.

"Dan treed the coon," said Mr fardy, in speaking of the highway candal and the ousting of the American Road Company from the "Lynch is not the cinch laim the coon after Dan had reed him," he continued. Mr. lardy declared that the dog who uns down a coon and trees him is intitled to him, and certainly no log who was not in the chase is ntitled to take the prize.

The referred to Lynch Davidson's candidacy as being a fence straddling proposition. He said Lynch referred to Moody as a nice young man, and at the same time found no fault with the highway situa-tion and the Ferguson administration.

"This was to gain favor with both sides." Mr. Hardy declared, (Continued on page 8.)
